
Miguel Alberto Almaguer Ortega
Associate

As the previous HR Vice President at Frisa Industries, Miguel dedicated a number of years to the development of individuals and the organization effectiveness, the enhancement of teamwork and the shaping of the Corporate Culture. He managed both of the HR company demands, the Administration of Personnel as well as the Talent Development. Under his HR administration, the company grew from 200 individuals to 1,800.

Argentina
Australia
Azerbaijan
Belarus
Bosnia-Herzegovina
Brazil
Canada
Croatia
India
Israel
Kazakhstan
Latvia
Lithuania
Moldova
Mexico
Poland
Russia
Serbia
Slovenia
Thailand
Turkey
U.S.A.
Ukraine

Miguel's experience over the past 34 years at Frisa went from the very technical assignments like quality and engineering to the more entrepreneurial as sales and business unit management. From 2000 to 2003 he managed the Frisa operation in Michigan, oriented to serve the Midwest Industrial Market of the US, gaining intercultural and overseas experience.

Miguel has been formed a Physicist by Monterrey Tec, and earned a Master's Degree in Organization Development from Universidad de Monterrey, Mexico. Other certifications he has received have been: IPADE's D1Direction Program and Adizes Institute Phases I, II and III.

Miguel has been married for 31 years, has two daughters, and lives in Monterrey, México.

